Dear Folks:

I am happy to have been able to accept the Elders invitation to come and preach in your recent meeting. It was a genuine pleasure to be associated with the fine group at Viola.

My visit in your home was an excellent beginning for our effort together. I deeply appreciate your kind hospitality and the wonderful food enjoyed in your home.

Your deep interest in the Lord's work and your efforts over the years with the Viola group are to be commended and opportunities of our association together.

Faternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
